Hope in Action

Strength in Unity

Join us for NOAH's 2025 banquet fundraiser - Hope in Action: Strength in Unity!

In times like these, hope is vital to the work of justice. Come together with the faith and labor communities to celebrate our shared hope for a better tomorrow and support a coalition dedicated to pursuing justice in Nashville.

For over a decade, NOAH has united congregations and unions across Nashville to combat systemic injustices in the areas of education, housing, economic opportunity, and criminal justice. We don't do this alone - corporate and community partners make our pursuit of justice possible. Put your hope in action by supporting NOAH during our 2025 fundraising banquet!

ABOUT THE EVENT

Date

Thursday, May 29, 2025
6:00 - 8:00 pm

Location

Trevecca Nazarene University
Boone Business Building
Nashville, TN 37210

Guest Speak: Senator Charlane Oliver

Now serving in her first term as "The People's Senator" for the 19th Senatorial District, Charlane is the lone progressive voice in the Tennessee Senate, where she champions a bold legislative agenda that uplifts working-class families, challenges corporate power, protects marginalized communities, supports women and survivors, and strengthens democracy.

WHY SPONSOR?

Systemic Impact

NOAH believes in addressing the causes of injustice not just the symptoms. Sponsors can help amplify the voices of marginalized people and help NOAH raise up leaders for social justice in our community.

Community Engagement

NOAH's membership reflects the diverse communities in our city. An event sponsorship aligns your organization with the values of the community you serve and allows you to connect with powerful leaders across the city.

Brand Recognition

All our sponsors will receive brand exposure to the 500 community leaders at the banquet. Certain sponsorships provide additional opportunities for visibility on NOAH's website, social media platforms, and promotional materials at the event.

ABOUT NOAH

Nashville Organized for Action and Hope (NOAH) is a faith-led coalition that is multi-racial and interdenominational. Comprised of congregations, community organizations, and labor unions, NOAH members work to give voice to traditionally marginalized people.

NOAH task forces are determined by its members who strategize actions and take steps toward equity in their team's focus area.

- Affordable Housing
- Criminal Justice
- Education
- Economic Equity, Jobs, & Tranportation

RECENT NOAH ACCOMPLISHMENTS

2023-present

February – June 2023: NOAH holds a Listening Campaign - our members selected four issue areas, reaffirming our previous task force interests - Affordable Housing, Criminal Justice, Education and Economic Equity & Jobs and adding Transportation.

July 2023: With a turn-out of 800, NOAH holds the largest Candidates' forum for nine of the eleven Mayoral candidates, posing questions about our key issues.

February 2024: NOAH's Education Task Force holds School Board Candidates' Forum with over 200 in attendance. Candidates answer questions about student safety and district accountability.

September 2024: Metro Council passes a resolution supporting the Zero Tolerance Sexual Misconduct Policy for MNPD after demands from NOAH and partner organizations.

October 2024: NOAH holds a public meeting with Mayor O'Connell during which NOAH leaders asked him questions surrounding housing, police accountability, and the transit plan.

October 2024: Partnering with Tirzah, NOAH holds a candidate forum for US House Districts 4, 5, 6, & 7. Candidates answered questions about education, gun safety, and voter rights.

Fall 2024: NOAH's Economic Equity/Transit Task Force strongly advocates for the Choose How You Move Transit Plan which Nashvillians overwhelmingly support at the polls in November

February 2025: Facilitated by NOAH's Educational Task Force, Pearl Cohn High School begins a student mentorship program with Fisk University.
